PART I – GENERAL

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Emergency (Miscellaneous Provisions and Powers) Regulation, No. 1 of 2019.

2. (1) In any emergency regulation, unless any other definition is expressly provided therein or unless it is otherwise expressly provided therein or the context otherwise requires—

"Attorney-General" in relation to any emergency regulation, includes the Solicitor-General, Senior Additional Solicitor-General, Additional Solicitor-General, Senior Deputy Solicitor General, Deputy Solicitor-General, Senior State Counsel, State Counsel or any Counsel authorized by the Attorney-General in that behalf for the purpose of such regulation;

"competent authority" in relation to any emergency regulation means, unless otherwise provided for in such regulation, any person appointed by name, or by office, by the President to be a competent authority for the purpose of such regulation;

"emergency regulation" means any of these regulations or any other regulations made under the Public Security Ordinance;
"essential service" means any service which is of public utility or essential for national security or preservation of public order or to the life of the community and includes any Department of Government or branch thereof and which is specified in the Schedule hereto and shall also include any service which may thereafter be declared in terms of regulation 44 of these regulations;

"explosive" shall have the same meaning as in the Explosives Act (Chapter 183);

"guns" shall have the same meaning as in the Firearms Ordinance (Chapter 182);

"Inspector-General of Police" includes any Senior Deputy Inspector-General of Police;

"land" includes land covered with water and parts of houses or buildings;

"Police Officer" means a member of any police force established under the Police Ordinance (Chapter 53);

"public officer" shall have the same meaning as in the Constitution;

"requisitioning" means, in relation to any vehicle, the taking possession of the vehicle or requiring the vehicle to be placed at the disposal of the requisitioning authority, and its grammatical variations or cognate expression shall be construed accordingly;

"Secretary to the Ministry of Defence" includes any Additional Secretary to the Ministry of Defence as authorized by the Secretary to the Ministry of Defence;

"Sri Lanka" means the territory of Sri Lanka and includes the territorial waters and air space of Sri Lanka;

"territorial waters" shall have the same meaning as in the Constitution;

"terrorism" means -

(a) murder, attempted murder, grievous hurt, hostage taking or abduction of any person;
(b) endangering the life of any person other than the person committing the act;
(c) causing serious damage to property, including public or private property, any place of public use, a State or Government facility, any public or private transportation system or any infrastructure facility or environment;
(d) causing serious obstruction or damage to essential services or supplies;
(e) committing the offence of robbery, extortion or theft, in respect of State or private property;
(f) causing obstruction or damage to, or interference with, any electronic or automated or computerized system or network or cyber environment of domains assigned to, or websites registered with such domains assigned to Sri Lanka;
(g) causing obstruction or damage to, or interference with any critical infrastructure or logistic facility associated with any essential service or supply;
(h) causing destruction or damage to religious or cultural property or heritage; and
(i) causing obstruction or damage to, or interference with any electronic, analog, digital or other wire-linked or wireless transmission system including signal transmission and any other frequency based transmission system;

(j) or any other act,

Committed with the intention of –

(i) intimidating a population;

(ii) wrongfully or unlawfully compelling the government of Sri Lanka, or any other government, or an international organization, to do or to abstain from doing any act;

(iii) preventing any such government from functioning; or

(iv) causing harm to the territorial integrity or sovereignty of Sri Lanka or any other sovereign country.

Any action taken by any person in good faith in the lawful exercise of a fundamental right or in pursuance of, or to give effect to a lawful order given to him, in accordance with or give effect to a judicial order, shall not amount to terrorism under this regulation.

"specified terrorist activity" means an offence specified in the Prevention of Terrorism Act,
No. 48 of 1979, an offence under the Public Security Ordinance (Chapter 40), an offence under Section 3 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, No. 5 of 2006, an offence under Section 3 of the Convention on the Suppression of Terrorist Financing Act, No.
25 of 2005, and any offence committed under Sections 114, 115, 116, 117, 121, 122, 128, 129 of the Penal Code (Chapter 19).

(2) The Interpretation Ordinance shall apply to the interpretation of an emergency regulation and of any orders or rules made thereunder, as it applies to the interpretation of an Act or Ordinance or Law.

(3) Any reference in any document or any other written law to any emergency regulation shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be construed as a reference to that regulation, as amended by any subsequent regulation made under the Public Security Ordinance.

(4) The services specified in the Schedule hereto or any service declared by the President by order in terms of regulation 44 of these regulations declaring any service to be of public utility or to be essential for national security or to the life of the community may be made generally for the whole of Sri Lanka or for any area or place specified in such order.

(5) Where any emergency regulation requires or enables a period to be specified in any direction or order made under such regulation, and such direction or order does not specify any such period, such period shall be deemed to be the period during which the regulation under which such direction or order is given or made remains in force.

3. Save as otherwise expressly provided, the powers conferred by any emergency regulation shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of any other rights or powers which by law are vested in or conferred on the President or any other authority or person.
4. Any power, duty or function conferred or imposed on the President by any emergency regulation may be exercised, performed or discharged by any Minister who is authorised in that behalf by the President.

5. (1) The appointment of any persons as a competent authority for the purposes of any emergency regulation may be made generally for the whole of Sri Lanka or for any area or place specified in writing by which such person is appointed and may be limited to such of those purposes as may be specified in writing.

Provided that nothing in the preceding provisions of this paragraph shall be deemed to preclude the appointment of two or more persons to be competent authorities for any of the purposes of any regulation or for any specified area or place.

(2) Where the holder of a designated office has been appointed to be a competent authority, then, unless express provision is made to the contrary, the appointment shall be deemed to extend to the person for the time being performing the duties of the office designated.

6. Without prejudice to any special provisions contained in any emergency regulation, a notice to be served on any person for the purpose of any emergency regulation may be served by sending it by post addressed to that person at his last or usual place of abode or place of business.

7. Any power conferred by any emergency regulation to make any order or rule shall be construed as including a power, exercisable in the like manner and subject to the like conditions, if any, to revoke or vary the order or rule.

PART II

TAKING INTO POSSESSION OF PREMISES AND REQUISITIONING OF VEHICLES AND OF PERSONAL SERVICES

8. (1) Where any building or premises is alleged to have been used in the commission of, or in connection with the commission of, any offence under these regulations or the Prevention of Terrorism Act, No. 48 of 1979, the Superintendent of Police of the area shall take possession of such building or premises and shall evict any person found therein or ordinarily resident therein and secure such premises from access to any unauthorized persons:

Provided, that any person claiming ownership to such building and premises shall be entitled to make application in that behalf to the High Court for the making of an order for the release of such building and premises and the Court may, on the expiration of a period of two weeks from the making of such application, order the release of such building or premises, if it is satisfied that such building and premises was used without his knowledge or contrary to his instructions:

Provided further that if no proceedings are instituted within six months of the taking into possession of such property for the commission of an offence as is referred to above, such building or premises shall be returned to its lawful owner.

(2) Where any person is convicted of any offence under this regulation or the Prevention of Terrorism Act and the Court is satisfied that such premises or buildings had been used in the commission or in connection with the commission of, an offence under this regulation or the Prevention of Terrorism Act, the Court, shall in addition to any penalty which it may impose, for such offence, order that such building or premises be forfeited to the Republic.

9. (1) If a competent authority is of opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do in the interest of national security, the preservation of public order or for the maintenance of supplies and services essential to the life of the community, he may requisition any vehicle in Sri Lanka and may give such directions as appear to the competent authority to be necessary or expedient in connection with the requisitioning.

(2) Where a competent authority requisitions any vehicle under paragraph (1) of this regulation, the competent authority may use or deal with or authorize the use of or dealing with, the vehicle for such purpose and in such manner as the competent authority thinks expedient in the interests of national security, the preservation of public order or for the maintenance of supplies and services essential to the life of the community.

(3) If a competent authority is of opinion that it is necessary for the effectual exercise of the powers conferred by paragraph (1) of this regulation so to do he may by order made as respects the whole of Sri Lanka or any specified area thereof, direct that no person who, at the time when the order takes effect, has in his possession or under his control at any premises in the area to which the order relates, any such vehicle as may be described in the order, shall remove the vehicle, or cause or permit it to be removed, from the premises until the removal of the vehicle therefrom is permitted by such person or authority as may be specified in the order.

(4) Any police officer and any other officer of Government shall, upon being requested to do so, aid and assist any person in the exercise of powers conferred on that person by the preceding provisions of this regulation.

(5) For the purposes of this regulation "competent authority" means the Commander of the Army, the Commander of the Navy, the Commander of the Air Force, the Inspector-General of Police or the District Secretary of every Administrative District.

10. The President may by order under his hand require, or may delegate to any one or more authorities or officers specified in that behalf the power in like manner to require, any person to do any work or render any personal service in aid, or in connection with, national security or the maintenance of essential services.

Where any person contravenes or fails to comply with any order made under this regulation, he shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction after trial before a Magistrate, in addition to any other penalty that the court shall impose for such offence -

(a) all property, movable or immovable, of such person shall, by virtue of such conviction, be deemed to be forfeited to the Republic free of encumbrances; and

(b) any alienation or other disposal of such property effected by such person after the date of the coming into force of this regulation shall be deemed to have been, and to be, null and void.

11. (1) The President may, by order, appoint any person by name or by office to be the Commissioner- General of Essential Services for the whole of Sri Lanka or any part thereof. It shall be the duty of the Commissioner- General of Essential Service to execute and co-ordinate all activities relating to the maintenance of essential services.
(2) The Commissioner-General of Essential Services may appoint, by name or by office, such Deputy Commissioners or Assistant Commissioners as may be necessary for the performance of his duties under these regulations.

(3) The Commissioner-General of Essential Services may delegate to any Deputy Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner appointed under paragraph (2) any power, duty or function conferred or imposed on, or assigned to such Commissioner-General by or under these regulations.

(4) For the purpose of the performance of duties under this regulation, the Commissioner-General of Essential Services may exercise any power:-

(a) conferred on the Secretary to the Ministry of the Minister of Defence or a competent authority appointed under that regulation;

(b) conferred by regulations 9 on the competent authority for the purposes of that regulation;

(c) conferred on any authority or officer to whom any power under regulation 10 has been delegated under that regulation.

(5) The Commissioner-General of Essential Services may give to —

(a) any competent authority appointed under regulation 5;

(b) any authority or officer, to whom any power has been delegated under regulation 10; and

(c) any Co-ordination Officer appointed under these regulations, such directions as may be necessary for ensuring the maintenance of essential services, and it shall be the duty of such competent authority, officer or Co-ordinating Officer as the case may be, to comply with very such direction.

PART III

CONTROL OF MEETINGS, PROCESSIONS, PUBLICATIONS, FIREARMS AND RIGHT OF ENTRY, & C.,

12. (1) If a competent authority is of opinion that special precautions should be taken to prevent the entry of unauthorized persons into any area, place or premises wholly or mainly occupied or used for the maintenance of essential services, that competent authority may by order provide that no person shall, subject to such exemptions as may be specified in the order, enter or remain upon that area or place or those premises without the permission or such authority or person as may be specified in the order.

(2) If any person is in any area, place or premises in contravention of an order made under this regulation, then without prejudice to any other proceedings that may be taken against him, he may be removed therefrom by any other person authorized in that behalf by a competent authority.

(3) In this regulation, "competent authority", in relation to any essential service, means any person appointed by name or by office, to be a competent authority for the purposes of that service by the President.
13. (1) The President may, by order, prohibit the holding of public processions or public meetings, or of such public processions or meetings as may be specified in that order in any area in Sri Lanka for such period as may be so specified, subject to such exemptions as may be made by that order or by any subsequent order made under this regulation.

(2) The President may give directions prohibiting the holding of any procession or meeting in any area in Sri Lanka, the holding of which would be in the opinion of the President likely to cause a disturbance of public order or promote disaffection.

(3) Any police officer may take such steps, and use such force as may be reasonably necessary for securing compliance with any order or directions made or given under this regulation.

14. (1) The President may, as respects any area in Sri Lanka, by order direct that, subject to such exemptions as may be made by that order or by any subsequent order made under this regulation, no person in that area shall, between such hours or during such period as may be specified in the order, be on any public road, railway, public park, public recreation ground, or other public ground, or the seashore, or any other building or premises or place specified in the order, except under the authority of a written permit granted by such person as may be specified in order.

(2) In paragraph (1) of this regulation, "public road" includes any roadway over a public bridge, any pavement, drain, embankment or ditch belonging or appertaining to a public road.

15. (1) A competent authority may take such measures and give such directions as he may consider necessary for preventing or restricting the publication in Sri Lanka or any specified area in Sri Lanka, or the transmission from Sri Lanka to place outside Sri Lanka, of matters which should or might be prejudicial to the interests of national security or the preservation of public order or the maintenance of supplies and services essential to the life of the community, and any directions issued under this paragraph may contain such incidental and supplementary provisions as appear to the competent authority to be necessary or expedient, including provision for securing that documents, pictorial representations, photographs, cinematograph films, teleprinter, telegraph, television, transmission of matters relating to the operations of security forces including news reports, editorials, articles to the editors, cartoons and comments, shall before publication be submitted or exhibited to the competent authority.

(2) (a) Every person who contravenes the provisions of any direction given under paragraph (1) of this regulation shall be guilty of an offence; and where any person is convicted of such an offence by reason of his having published a newspaper, the President may by order direct that during such period as may be specified in that order that person shall not publish any newspaper in Sri Lanka.

(b) Without prejudice to the provisions of Sub-paragraph (a), where there is a contravention of the provisions of any direction given under paragraph (1) of this regulation and such contravention is in respect of any publication in any newspaper, the competent authority may, after issuing one or more warnings as he may consider reasonable, order —

(i) that no person shall print, publish or distribute or in any way be concerned in the printing, publication or distribution of such newspaper for such period as may be specified in the order; or

(ii) that the printing press in which such newspaper was published shall, for such period as is specified in the order, not be used for any purposes whatsoever or for any such purpose as is specified in the order and any such order may authorize any person specified therein to take such steps (including the taking possession of any printing press with respect to which the order is made or of any premises in which it is contained or of any part of such printing press or premises) as appear to the persons so authorized to be necessary for securing compliance with the order.

(3) If a Competent Authority is of opinion that there is or has been or is likely to be in any newspaper, publication of matter which is in his opinion, calculated to be prejudicial to the interest of national security or the preservation of public order or the maintenance of supplies and services essential to the life of the community, or matter inciting or encouraging persons to mutiny, riot or civil commotion, he may —

(a) by order direct that no person shall print, publish or distribute or in any way be concerned in the printing, publication or distribution of such newspaper for such period as may be specified in the order, and that the printing press in which such newspaper was printed shall for such period as is specified in the order, not be used for any purpose whatsoever or for any such purpose as is specified in the order, and authorize any person specified therein to take such steps (including the taking possession of any printing press with respect to which the order is made or of any premises in which it is contained or of any part of such printing press or premises) as appear to the person so authorized to be necessary for securing compliance with the order; or

(b) take such measures or give such directions or make such order as is provided for in paragraph (1) and (2) of this regulation in respect of such newspaper.

(4) Where a Competent Authority has made an order under the provisions of paragraph (2) (b) or paragraph (3) of this regulation in relation to any newspaper specified by name in the order, such order shall apply not only to any newspaper published under that name, but also to any newspaper published under any other name if the publication thereof, is in any respect, in continuation of, (or in substitution for), the publication of the newspaper specified in the order.

(5) No person shall print, publish or distribute, or in any way be concerned in the printing, publication or distribution of any newspaper in respect of which an order has been made under the provisions of paragraph (2) (b) or paragraph (3) of this regulation.

(6) At any time after an order has been made under this regulation, the President may direct that the operation of the order be suspended, subject to such conditions as the President thinks fit and may at any time revoke such direction.

(7) If a Competent Authority is of opinion that any printing press or a printing press under the control of any person, has been or is likely to be used for the production of any document containing matter which is in his opinion calculated to prejudice the interests of national security or the preservation of public order or the maintenance of supplies and services essential to the life of the community or matter inciting or encouraging persons to mutiny, riot or civil commotion, the Competent Authority may by order direct that the printing press, or all or any of the printing presses under the control of that person, as the case may be, shall so long as the order is in force, not be used for any purpose whatsoever or for any such purpose as is specified in the order; and any such order may authorize any person specified therein to take such steps (including the taking possession of any printing press with respect to which the order is made or of any premises in which it is contained or any part of such printing press or premises) as appear to the person so authorized to be necessary for securing compliance with the order.
(8) For the purpose of paragraphs 2 (b), (3) and (7) of this regulation, there shall be one or more Advisory Committees consisting of persons appointed by the President and any person dissatisfied with any order made under any of those paragraphs may make his objections in respect thereof to the appropriate Advisory Committee.

(9) It shall be the duty of the Competent Authority to secure, that in any case where an order is made under paragraph (2) (b), paragraph (3) or paragraph (7) of this regulation, the proprietor of the newspaper or the owner of the printing press affected thereby is informed that he may make representations to the President in writing with respect to that order and that he may, whether or not such representations are made, make objections to the appropriate Advisory Committee.

(10) Any meeting of an Advisory Committee held to consider such objections as aforesaid shall be presided over by a chairman nominated by the President, and it shall be the duty of the chairman to afford to the objector an opportunity of making representations in person in support of his objections.

(11) The report of an Advisory Committee upon any such objections as aforesaid shall be submitted to the President who may after consideration thereof, revoke or vary the order to which the objections relate.

(12) Where any newspaper is printed, published or distributed in contravention of any provisions of this regulation, or of any condition attached to a direction given under paragraph (6) of this regulation, the proprietor, the manager, the editor and the publisher of that newspaper shall, whether or not the direction is revoked in consequence of the contravention be severally guilty of an offence.

(13) In this regulation —
   (a) "cinematograph film" includes a sound track and any other article on which sounds have been recorded for the purpose of their being reproduced in connection with the exhibition of such a film;
   (b) "publication" means, in relation to a cinematograph film, the exhibition of the film to the public and includes the mechanical or electrical productions of any sounds in connection with the exhibition of the film as aforesaid;
   (c) "newspaper" includes any journal, magazine, pamphlet or other publication; and
   (d) "printing press" includes any machinery, apparatus or plant capable of being used for printing, lithography, photography, or other mode of representing or reproducing words in a visible form, or any type or other article belonging to such machinery, apparatus or plant.

16. Every Divisional Secretary of a Divisional Secretary’s Division shall appoint for that Divisional Secretary’s Division, a committee consisting of public servants, office bearers of trade unions, and other recognized persons in the community. It shall be the duty of every such committee to advise the relevant authorities, on the preservation of public order and the maintenance of essential supplies and services, in that Divisional Secretary’s Division.

17. (1) The Inspector-General of Police may, in the interests of national security, and with a view to ensuring the maintenance of public order, direct that any gun or explosive in the possession of any person shall be removed and kept in such custody as he may determine.

(2) Any person specified in that behalf by name or by office in any direction issued by the Inspector-General of Police under paragraph (1) of this regulation may carry out such direction. For the purpose of carrying out such direction, such person may be assisted by any other person or persons and may enter any premises or place and open or break open any outer or inner door or window for the purpose of entering such premises or place and any receptacle or repository wherein any gun or explosive is suspected by such person to be kept.

(3) No person shall conceal any gun or explosive to which a direction issued by the Inspector-General of Police under paragraph (1) of this regulation relates or do any other act with a view to preventing or hindering the carrying out of such direction.

PART IV
SUPERVISION, SEARCH, ARREST AND DETENTION

18. (1) Where the Secretary to the Ministry of the Minister in charge of the subject of Defence is of opinion with respect to any particular person that, with a view to preventing that person —

(a) from acting in any manner prejudicial to the national security or to the maintenance of public order, or to the maintenance of essential services; or

(b) from acting in any manner contrary to any of the provisions of regulation 25 or sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (2) of regulation 44 or of paragraph (3) of regulation 75 of these regulations;

it is necessary so to do, the Secretary may make an order for all or any of the following purposes:—

(i) for securing that, except in so far as he may be permitted by the order, or by such authority or person as may be specified in that order, that person shall not be in any such area in Sri Lanka as may be so specified;

(ii) for requiring that person to notify his movements in such manner, at such times, and to such authority or person as may be specified in that order;

(iii) for prohibiting that person from leaving his residence without the permission of such authority or person as may be specified in that order, and prohibiting any other person from entering or leaving such residence except in such circumstances as may be specified in that order or be determined by such authority or person as may be specified in that order;

(iv) for requiring that person, if he is in possession of a passport or of travel documents or tickets for transportation for a journey outside Sri Lanka, to surrender such passport or travel documents or tickets, as the case may be, to such authority or person as may be specified in that order;

(v) for prohibiting or restricting the possession or use by that person of any specified articles; and

(vi) for imposing upon that person such restrictions as may be specified in that order in respect of his employment or business, in respect of his association or communication with other persons and in respect of his activities in relation to the dissemination of news or the propagation of opinions.
(2) If any person is in any area in contravention of an order made under sub-paragraph (i) of paragraph (1) of this regulation or fails to leave any area in accordance with the requirements of such an order, then, without prejudice to any proceedings that may be taken against him, he may be removed from that area by any police officer or by any other person authorized in that behalf by the Secretary to the Ministry of Defence.

19. (1) Where the Secretary to the Ministry of Defence is of opinion with respect to any person that, with a view to preventing such person —

(a) from acting in any manner prejudicial to the national security or to the maintenance of public order, or to the maintenance of essential services; or

(b) from acting in any manner contrary to any of the provisions of sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (2) of regulation 44 or regulation 25 of these regulations, it is necessary so to do, the Secretary may order that such person be taken into custody and detained in custody:

Provided however that no person shall be detained upon an order under this paragraph for a period exceeding one year.

(2) Any police officer or member of the Sri Lanka Army, Sri Lanka Navy or Sri Lanka Air Force shall have the right to carry into effect any order made under paragraph (1) of this regulation and to sue all such force as may be necessary for the purpose.

(3) Any person detained in pursuance of an order made under paragraph (1) of this regulation shall be deemed to be in lawful custody and shall be detained in such place as may be authorized by the Inspector-General of Police and in accordance with instructions issued by him, and where such person is so detained in a prison established under the Prisons Ordinance —

(a) all the provisions of Ordinance other than the provisions of Part IX of that Ordinance, and

(b) all the rules made under that Ordinance other than the rules which relate to visits to, and the correspondence of, prisoners, shall apply to such person as though he were a civil prisoner within the meaning of that Ordinance:

Provided however, that the Inspector-General of Police may, where he considers it expedient so to do —

(a) by order direct that any provisions of the said Ordinance or any rules made thereunder which under the preceding provisions of this paragraph apply to such person, shall not apply or shall apply subject to such amendments or modifications as may be specified in such order; and

(b) permit visits to, and the correspondence of, such person in such manner and at such time and place, as the Inspector-General of Police may from time to time direct.

(4) For the purpose of this regulation, there shall be one or more Advisory Committees consisting of persons appointed by the President, and any person aggrieved by an order made against him under this regulation may make his objections to such a Committee.
(5) It shall be the duty of the Secretary to the Ministry of Defence to secure that any person against whom an order is made this regulation shall be afforded the earliest practicable opportunity of making to the President representations in writing with respect thereto and that he shall be informed of his right whether or not such representations are made to make his objections to such an Advisory Committee as aforesaid. Rules may be made by the President in relation to the hearing and disposal of such objections.

(6) Any meeting of an Advisory Committee held to consider such objections as foresaid shall be presided over by a chairman nominated by the President and it shall be the duty of the chairman to inform the objector of the grounds on which the order under this regulation has been made against him and to furnish him with such particulars as are in the opinion of the chairman sufficient to enable him to present his case.

(7) Where an Advisory Committee consists of three persons, the quorum for any meeting thereof shall be two, and where an Advisory Committee consists of more than three persons, the quorum shall be three.

(8) The report of an Advisory Committee with respect to any such objections as foresaid shall be submitted to the Secretary to the Ministry of Defence who may, after consideration thereof, revoke the order to which the objections relate.

(9) Where the Secretary to the Ministry in charge of the subject of Defence certifies in writing that any person in respect of whom an order under paragraph (1) of this regulation is made by him to be or have been a member of an organization, proscribed under regulation 75 of these regulations, the provisions of paragraphs (4), (5), (6), (7) and (8) of this regulation shall not apply in regard to that person.

(10) An order under paragraph (1) of this regulation shall not be called in question in any court on any ground whatsoever.

20. (1) Any Public officer, any member of the Sri Lanka Army, the Sri Lanka Navy or the Sri Lanka Air Force, or any other person authorized by the President to act under this regulation may search, detain for purposes of such search, or arrest without warrant, any person who is committing or has committed or whom he has reasonable ground for suspecting to be concerned in, or to be committing, or to have committed, an offence under any emergency regulation, and may search, seize, remove and detain any vehicle, vessel, article, substance or thing whatsoever used in, or in connection with, the commission of the office.

(2) Any person detained under paragraph (1) shall, within twenty-four hours, be handed over to the nearest police station.

(3) Any person conducting a search under paragraph (1) of this regulation may question any other person present in the premises, place, vehicle or vessel searched, or the person who is searched, in regard to any matter connected with or relating to the purpose of the search.

(4) Every person who is questioned under paragraph (3) of this regulation shall furnish such information as is within his knowledge in regard to the matter on which he is questioned.

(5) The person residing in or in charge of any premises, place, vehicle or vessel which is to be searched under this regulation shall, on demand of the person conducting the search, allow him free ingress thereto and afford all reasonable facilities for a search therein.
(6) A person conducting a search under this regulation may, in order to effect an entrance into the premises, place, vehicle or vessel to be searched, open or break open any outer or inner door or window.

(7) Whenever it is necessary to cause a female to be searched, the search shall be made by another female.

(8) It shall be the duty of the arresting officer to report the arrest made under paragraph (1), where the arresting officer is a police officer, to the Superintendent of Police of the Division within which the arrest is made, and the where the arresting officer is a member of the armed forces, to the Commanding Officer of the area within which the arrest is made, within twenty-four hours of the arrest.

(9) Where any person is taken into custody under the provisions of this regulation it shall be the duty of the arresting officer to issue to the spouse, father, mother, or any other close relative a document in such form as is specified by the Secretary, acknowledging the fact of arrest. It shall be the duty of the holder of such document to return the same to, or produce the same before, the appropriate authority when such arrested person is released from custody:

Provided that where any person is taken into custody and it is not possible to issue a document as set out above, it shall be the duty of the arresting officer if such officer is a police officer, to make an entry in the information book, giving reasons why it is not possible to issue such documents, and if the arresting officer is a member of the armed forces, to report to the officer in charge of the police station the reasons why it is not possible to issue such documents and the officer in charge shall make an entry of such fact along with the reasons therefore in the information book.

(10) Where any person without reasonable cause fails to issue a document acknowledging the fact of arrest as required by paragraph (9) or willfully omits to make such entry as is referred to in the proviso to that paragraph or to report the fact that the document was not issued and the reasons therefore, he shall be guilty of an offence and upon conviction after trial before the High Court be liable to a term of imprisonment extending to two years and a fine.

(11) Where any property is seized or detained under the provisions of this regulation a person effecting the seizure or detention shall issue a receipt in respect of such property to the person from whose custody such property was seized detained.

21. (1) the provisions of Sections 36, 37 and 38 of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979, shall not apply in relation to persons arrested under regulation 19:

Provided that where any person has been arrested and detained under the provisions of regulation 19 of these regulations, such person shall be produced before any Magistrate within a reasonable time, having regard to the circumstances of each case, and in any event, not later than thirty days after such arrest.

Further, the Magistrate shall not release any person on bail unless the prior written approval of the Attorney- General has been obtained.

(8) the proceedings before the High Court shall not be open to the public and only such reports of the proceedings or part thereof as is authorised by the Competent Authority, shall be published. Provided, however, that the Court of Appeal may on application made to in that behalf direct that the proceedings or any part thereof, shall be open to the public.

(9) At the conclusion of the inquiry the Judge of the High Court shall transmit the record of evidence and a report of the circumstances under which the death was caused together with any other documents to the Attorney - General.
62. Upon receipt of the record of evidence and other documents transmitted to him under paragraph (9) of regulation 59, it shall be lawful for the Attorney General —

(a) to call for any further material or information as he may require;

(b) if he is satisfied that the commission of any offences has been disclosed —

(i) direct the institution of proceedings under Chapter XIV or XV of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979; or

(ii) proceed under the provision of sub-section (7) of section 393 of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act.

GENERAL

63. The proceedings in any court in respect of an offence alleged to have been committed by a person under any emergency regulation shall be taken up before any other business of the court.

64. (1) Save as otherwise herein provided and notwithstanding any other written law the proceedings in respect of an offence alleged to have been committed by a person under any emergency regulation may be taken before the appropriate court in Sri Lanka having jurisdiction over the place where that person is for the time being.

(2) The Attorney-General may decide in which court —

(a) offences alleged to have been committed by persons under the emergency regulations; or

(b) offences alleged to have been committed by persons under any other written law where the acts or commission constituting such offences were consequent on, or arose out of, or were done or omitted to be done in, whether directly or indirectly, the exercise or performance, or the supposed exercise or performance, of any power or duty under such regulations shall be inquired into or tried. Such court shall be a court which would have had jurisdiction of such court.

(3) Where at least one of the charge is for an offence referred to in sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (2) the Attorney-General may, notwithstanding the provisions of any other written law, forward an indictment directly to the High Court and the accused shall be tried upon the indictment so preferred without a jury.

(4) Where the Attorney-General decides, under paragraph (2) of this regulation the court by which any offence shall be inquired into or tried, he shall by his fiat in writing designate such court as the court by which such offence shall be inquired into or tried and accordingly such inquiry or trial shall be held by such court on the authority of such fiat, which shall be filed of record with the proceedings of such inquiry or trial.

(5) A decision of the Attorney General under paragraph (2) of this regulation may be made applicable to —
(a) all offences alleged to have been committed by persons under the emergency regulations throughout Sri Lanka or in any particular area in Sri Lanka; or

(b) all such offences alleged to have been so committed by persons of any particular class or description in any particular area in Sri Lanka; or

(c) all such offences of any particular class or description alleged to have been so committed by persons throughout Sri Lanka or in any particular area in Sri Lanka; or

(d) all such offences of any particular class or description alleged to have been committed by person of any particular class or description, or any particular person, throughout Sri Lanka or in any particular area in Sri Lanka; or

(e) any particular offence alleged to have been committed by any particular person throughout Sri Lanka or in any particular area in Sri Lanka.

65. (1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (3) of regulation 24, no prosecution shall be instituted in the Magistrate’s Court -

(a) for an offence against any emergency regulation; or

(b) for an offence against any other written law where the act or omission constituting such offence was consequent on, or arose out of, or was done or committed to be done in, whether directly or indirectly, the exercise or performance, of any power or duty under such regulation.

except by or with the written sanction of the Attorney-General.

(2) The President may by order declare that the provisions of paragraph (1) of this regulation shall not apply in respect of any offence against any such emergency regulation as may be specified in the order and accordingly, so long as such order remains enforce, that paragraph shall not apply to any such offence.

66. (1) Notwithstanding any emergency regulation or other written law the trial, including a trial at bar, for any offence under the emergency regulations, may be held upon indictment by the Attorney-General and thereupon the person charged shall be tried without a preliminary inquiry before the High Court of High Court at bar, as the case may by, without a jury:

Provided that where the Attorney-General being of opinion that evidence recorded at a preliminary inquiry will be necessary for preparing an indictment, may direct the holding of a preliminary inquiry before the High Court of High Court at bar, as the case may by, without a jury:

Provided that where the Attorney-General being of opinion that evidence recorded at a preliminary inquiry will be necessary for preparing an indictment, may direct the holding of a preliminary inquiry, The provisions of Chapter XV of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979 shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to such preliminary inquiry.

(2) A person indicted before the High Court under this regulation shall not be admitted to bail except with the consent of the Attorney-General.

(3) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (2) at any trial under this regulation the Court or the presiding Judge thereof may give directions for the summoning arrest custody or bail of all persons charged before the Court.

(4) The trial of any person before the High Court under this regulation may commence or continue in the absence of such person if the Court is satisfied that he is evading arrest or absconding of feigning illness.
(5) Any person indicated before the High Court under these regulations may at any time which shall not extend to more than thirty days before the commencement of such trial, by application in writing to the High Court, request that he be furnished with copies of the statements made by witnesses whom the prosecution intends to call and of the documents to be relied on at the trial, and the Court may direct that copies of all such statements or documents, or of only such statements or documents as the Court in its discretion thinks fit, shall be given to such person.

(6) A trial before the High Court under these regulations, including a High Court at Bar, shall be held as speedily as possible and in the manner provided under any other written law for other trials before the High Courts, or the High Court at Bar, as the case may be, without a jury.

67. (1) At the trial of any person for an offence under any emergency regulation a statement made by such person whether or not it amounts to a confession and whether or not such person was in the custody of a police officer at the time the statement was made and whether or not such statement was made in the immediate presence of a Magistrate may be proved as against such person, if but only if, such statement is not irrelevant under Section 24 of the Evidence Ordinance.

Provided, however, that no such statement shall be proved against such person if such statement was made to a police officer below the rank of Assistant Superintendent of Police.

(2) In the case of an offence under any emergency regulation a statement made by any person which may be proved under paragraph (1) as against himself may be proved as against any other person jointly charged with such offence, if but only if, such statement is corroborated in material particulars by evidence other than a statement made under regulation 52 of these regulations.

(3) The burden of proving that any statement referred to in paragraph (1) or (2) is irrelevant under section 24 of the Evidence Ordinance shall be on the person asserting it to be irrelevant.

(4) The provisions of sections 25, 26 and 30 of the Evidence Ordinance shall not apply in the case of any offence under any emergency regulation.

(5) A statement made by any person may be proved under paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) notwithstanding the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 110 of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979.

68. The provisions of Chapter XI of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979, shall not apply to any investigations conducted under any emergency regulation.

69. (1) In any proceedings for an offence, a certificate purporting to be under the hand of the Government Analyst, Deputy Government Analyst or Assistant Government Analyst or any other officer acting in such capacity in regard to the identity, composition or character of any thing or matter submitted to him for examination or analysis, shall be conclusive proof of the truth of the statements contained in such certificate without such person being called to testify in such proceedings.

(2) Where the Government Analyst, Deputy Government Analyst or Assistant Government Analyst or any other officer acting in such capacity is of opinion that it is not safe or practicable to keep in his custody any thing or matter submitted to him for examination or analysis in connection with... any offence such officer may, after making the necessary examination or analysis, cause such thing or matter to be disposed of or destroyed.

(3) Where any thing or matter is disposed of or destroyed under the provisions of paragraph (2), a record of the thing or matter disposed of or destroyed shall be maintained by the Government Analyst, Deputy Government Analyst, Assistant Government Analyst or any other officer acting in such capacity, as the case may be; and a certificate purporting to be under the hand of any such officer containing the substance or contents of such record shall in any proceedings for any offence be conclusive proof of the truth of the statement contained in such certificate without such officer being called to testify in such proceedings.

(4) In this regulation, "offence" means any offence under any emergency regulation or under the Explosives Act, (Chapter 183) or under the Offensive Weapons Act, No. 18 of 1966, or the Firearms Ordinance or under Chapter VI or Chapter VII or Chapter VIII of the Penal Code.

70. No person shall resist or obstruct any other person in the exercise or discharge of any power or duty conferred or imposed on that other person by or under any emergency regulation.
