Civil Procedure Code (Amendment) Act,
No. 53 of 1980

[Certified on 11th December, 1980]

L.D.—O. 10/80.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE CIVIL PROCEDURE CODE.

BE it enacted by the Parliament of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Civil Procedure Code (Amendment) Act, No. 53 of 1980. Short title

2. Section 8 of the Civil Procedure Code (hereinafter referred to as the “principal enactment”) is hereby repealed and the following new section substituted therefor:— Replacement of section 8 of Chapter 101.

“Procedure of action to be ordinarily regular.

8. Save and except actions in which it is by this Ordinance or any other law specially provided that proceedings may be taken by way of summary procedure, every action shall commence and proceed by a course of regular procedure, as hereinafter prescribed.”.

3. Section 86 of the principal enactment is hereby amended as follows:— Amendment of section 86 of the principal enactment.

(i) by the repeal of subsection (1) thereof; and

(ii) by the insertion, immediately after subsection (2) thereof, of the following new subsection:—

“(2A) At any time prior to the entering of judgment against a defendant for default, the court may, if the plaintiff consents, but not otherwise, set aside any order made on the basis of the default of the defendant and permit him to proceed with his defence as from the stage of default upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as to the court shall appear fit.”.

4. Section 88 of the principal enactment is hereby amended, by the insertion, immediately after subsection (2) thereof, of the following new subsection:— Amendment of section 88 of the principal enactment.

“(3) The provisions of sections 761 and 763 shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to and in relation to the execution of a decree entered upon default, where an order refusing to set aside such decree has been made.”.

Amendment
of section 192 of the principal
enactment.

5. Section 192 of the principal enactment is hereby amended, by the substitution, for subsection (1) thereof, of the following new subsection :—

“(1) When the action is for a sum of money due to the plaintiff, the court may, in the decree order interest according to the rate agreed on between the parties by the instrument sued on, or in the absence of any such agreement at the rate of twelve per centum per annum to be paid on the principal sum adjudged from the date of the action to the date of the decree, in addition to any interest adjudged on such principal sum for any period prior to the institution of the action, with further interest at such rate on the aggregate sum so adjudged, from the date of the decree to the date of payment, or to such earlier date as the court thinks fit.”.

Replacement
of section 196 of the principal
enactment.

6. Section 196 of the principal enactment is hereby repealed and the following new section substituted therefor :—

“Decree
when claim in respect of mesne profits from date of action is allowed.

196. When the action is for the recovery of the possession of immovable property, yielding rent or other profit, the court may, whenever the prayer of the plaint asks for damages in respect of mesne profits or rent, provide in the decree for the payment of money in lieu of mesne profits or rent in respect of such property from the date of the institution of the action until the delivery of possession to the party in whose favour the decree is made, with interest thereon at such rate not exceeding twelve per centum as the court thinks fit.

Explanation :—“Mesne profits” of property mean those profits which the person in wrongful possession of such property actually received, or might, with ordinary diligence, have received therefrom.”

7. Section 213 of the principal enactment is hereby repealed and the following new section substituted therefor :—

Replacement
of section 213 of the principal
enactment.

“ Court may give interest on costs.

213. The court may give interest on costs at any rate not exceeding twelve per centum per annum, and may direct that costs, with or without interest, be paid out of, or charged upon, the subject-matter of the action.”.

8. Section 222 of the principal enactment is hereby amended, by the insertion, immediately after subsection (2) thereof, of the following new subsection :—

Amendment
of section 222 of the principal
enactment.

“ (3) An application to execute a decree against the judgment-debtor as provided in subsection (2) shall be made, by petition supported by affidavit of the judgment-creditor setting out the material facts, to which application the judgment-debtor shall be made respondent. The court shall after inquiry, if satisfied that the decree should be executed against the judgment-debtor personally, grant such application.”.

9. Section 325 of the principal enactment is hereby amended, by the substitution, for subsection (2) thereof, of the following new subsection :—

Amendment
of section 325 of the principal
enactment.

“ (2) When a petition under subsection (1) is presented, the court may, upon the application of the judgment-creditor made by motion ex parte, direct the Fiscal to publish a notice announcing that the Fiscal has been resisted or obstructed in delivering possession of such property, or that the judgment-creditor has been hindered in taking complete and effectual possession thereof or ousted therefrom, as the case may be, by the judgment-debtor or other person, and calling upon all persons claiming to be in possession of the whole or any part of such property by virtue of any right or interest and who object to possession being delivered to the judgment-creditor to notify their claims to court within fifteen days of the publication of the notice.”.

Amendment
of section 326 of the principal
enactment.

10. Section 326 of the principal enactment is hereby amended, by the substitution, for subsection (1) thereof, of the following new subsection :—

“ (1) On the hearing of the matter of the petition and the claim made, if any, the court, if satisfied—

(a) that the resistance, obstruction, hindrance or ouster complained of was occasioned by the judgment-debtor or by some person at his instigation or on his behalf ;

(b) that the resistance, obstruction, hindrance or ouster complained of was occasioned by a person other than the judgment-debtor, and that the claim of such person to be in possession of the property, whether on his own account or on account of some person other than the judgment-debtor, is frivolous or vexatious ; or

(c) that the claim made, if any, has not been established, shall direct the judgment-creditor to be put into or restored to the possession of the property and may, in the case specified in paragraph (a), in addition sentence the judgment-debtor or such other person to imprisonment for a period not exceeding thirty days.”.

Replacement
of section 330 of the principal
enactment.

11. Section 330 of the principal enactment is hereby repealed and the following new section substituted therefor :—

“How subsequent obstruction to be dealt with.

330. Any subsequent resistance or obstruction to the execution of the writ or hindrance to the possession or ouster of the judgment-creditor within a year and a day of the delivery of possession—

(a) by the judgment-debtor or any other respondent to the petition under section 325, or

(b) where a notice under subsection (2) of section 325 has been duly published, by any person whosoever, shall be punishable as a contempt of court.”.

12. Section 337 of the principal enactment is hereby amended as follows :—

Amendment
of section 337 of the principal
enactment.

(i) by the substitution, for subsection (1) thereof, of the following new subsection :—

“(1) No application (whether it be the first or a subsequent application) to execute a decree, not being a decree granting an injunction, shall be granted after the expiration of ten years from—

(a) the date of the decree sought to be executed or of the decree, if any, on appeal affirming the same ; or

(b) where the decree or any subsequent order directs the payment of money or the delivery of property to be made on a specified date or at recurring periods, the date of the default in making the payment or delivering the property in respect of which the applicant seeks to execute decree.” ; and

(ii) by the insertion, immediately after subsection (2) thereof, of the following new subsection :—

“(3) Subject to the provisions contained in subsection (2), a writ of execution, if unexecuted, shall remain in force for one year only from its issue, but—

(a) such writ may at any time before its expiration, be renewed by the judgment-creditor for one year from the date of such renewal, and so on from time to time ; or

(b) a fresh writ may at any time after the expiration of an earlier writ be issued,

till satisfaction of the decree is obtained.”.

13. Section 501 of the principal enactment is hereby repealed and the following new section substituted therefor :—

Replacement of section 501 of the principal
enactment.

“This Chapter to apply to persons of unsound mind and mentally deficient persons.

501. (1) The provisions contained in this Chapter shall, mutatis mutandis, apply in the case of persons of unsound mind and mentally deficient persons, adjudged to be so under the provisions of this Ordinance or under any law for the time being in force.

(2) For the purposes of this section, "persons of unsound mind and mentally deficient persons", mean persons who have been so adjudged under the provisions of this Ordinance or under any law for the time being in force, or where there has been no such adjudication, persons of whom the court is satisfied, after inquiry, to be of unsound mind or mentally deficient and incapable of managing their own affairs."

Insertion of new section 580A in the principal
enactment.

14. The following new section is hereby inserted immediately after section 580, and shall have effect as section 580A, of the principal enactment :—

'Provisions applicable to mentally deficient persons.

580A. (1) The provisions contained in this Chapter, other than section 555 shall apply in the case of mentally deficient persons.

(2) For the purposes of this section, "mentally deficient persons", mean persons who are incapable of managing their own affairs by reason of being mentally ill, feeble, infirm or defective, though not adjudicated as persons of unsound mind in accordance with any law for the time being in force.'

Replacement
of section 662 of the principal
enactment.

15. Section 662 of the principal enactment is hereby repealed and the following new section substituted therefor :—

"When injunction may be granted.

662. Every application for an injunction for any of the purposes mentioned in section 54 of the Judicature Act, No. 2 of 1978, except in cases where an injunction is prayed for in a plaint in any action, shall be by petition, and shall be accompanied by an affidavit of the applicant or some other person having knowledge of the facts, containing a statement of the facts on which the application is based."

16. Section 745 of the principal enactment is hereby repealed and the following new section substituted therefor :—

Replacement
of section 745 of the principal enactment.
