- 10 (b) the form of certificates to be issued under this Part; and
- (c) such other matters as are to be prescribed under this Part.

Chapter 2

CERTIFICATE

15 Prohibition on ships sailing without certificate issued under this Part. 215c. (1) A ship shall not go to sea on a voyage to or from any port or place in Sri Lanka or any Sri Lanka ship shall not perform an international voyage, unless there is in force in respect of the ship a certificate issued under this Part.

20 (2) If any ship goes or attempts to go to sea in contravention of subsection (1), the owner or the master of the ship shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction thereof, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 25 one year or to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand rupees or to both such imprisonment and fine.

30 Variation of certificate on amendment of Convention. 215D. In the event of any amendment or replacement of any provisions of the Convention affecting the nature of the certificate referred to in subsection (1) of section 215c, the Minister may by Order direct that such subsection shall have effect as if there were substituted therefor references to such other certificate, appropriate to the Convention as so amended, as the Minister may by such order prescribe.

40 Production of certificate. 215E. The master of every ship shall produce to the relevant officer, at the time a clearance for the ship is demanded for voyage, the

5 certificate referred to in subsection (1) of section 215c, to be in force when the ship goes to sea and, a clearance shall not be granted and the ship may be detained, until the said certificate is so produced.

10 Survey, examination or investigation. 215 F. (1) The owner, the master or the agent of a ship requiring the issue of a certificate referred to in subsection (1) of section 215c shall apply for the ship to be surveyed, examined or investigated by the relevant authority to the effect that the condition of the ship and its equipment are in good order.

15 (2) The relevant authority conducting the survey, examination or investigation shall, if he is satisfied that the condition of the ship and its equipment are in good order, complete a declaration of survey, examination or investigation in a form prescribed by regulation.

20 (3) The declaration of survey, examination or investigation shall be sent forthwith by the relevant authority to the Director-General of Merchant Shipping.

25 Issue of certificate. 215G. Upon receipt of the declaration of survey, examination or investigation of a ship referred to in section 215F, the Director-General of Merchant Shipping shall, if satisfied that the relevant provisions of this Part and the regulations made thereunder have been complied with, issue such certificate to such ship.

35 Period of validity of certificate. 215H. A certificate shall not remain in force—
(a) for longer than such period as may be specified in the certificate, or as may be prescribed; or

5 (b) after notice has been given to the owner, master or agent that the Director-General of Merchant Shipping has cancelled the certificate under section 215i and shall not remain in force during the period of any suspension made under such section.

10 Cancellation or suspension of certificate. 215i. (1) The Director-General of Merchant Shipping may cancel or suspend a certificate relating to any ship where he has reason to believe that—

15 (a) any declaration of survey, examination or investigation on which the certificate was founded has been in any particular made fraudulently or erroneously;

20 (b) the certificate has been issued on false or erroneous information; or

25 (c) since the making of the declaration of survey, examination or investigation, the condition of the ship or its equipment has sustained any damage, or is otherwise insufficient.

30 (2) In every such case, the Director-General of Merchant Shipping may require the owner to have the ship again surveyed, examined or investigated and to obtain a further declaration of survey, examination or investigation before the reissue of the certificate or the grant of a fresh one in lieu thereof.

35 Information relating to cancellation or suspension. 215j. The Director-General of Merchant Shipping shall inform the owner, master or agent of the ship that the certificate has been cancelled or suspended.

5	Recognition of certificate issued outside Sri Lanka.	215K. (1) A certificate issued under the authority of a country to which the Convention applies to the effect that the condition of the ship and its equipment are in good order, shall be accepted by the Director-General of Merchant Shipping and, regarded for all purposes covered by the Convention as having the same validity as a certificate issued by such country.
10		(2) Every ship shall be required to hold the certificate referred to in subsection (1), while in the ports or offshore terminals under the jurisdiction of Sri Lanka.
15		(3) Where the ship does not carry a valid certificate, the Director-General of Merchant Shipping shall take such steps to ensure that the ship shall not sail until it may proceed to sea without presenting an unreasonable threat of harm to the marine environment:
20		Provided, the Director-General of Merchant Shipping may grant such a ship permission to leave the port or offshore terminal for the purpose of proceeding to the nearest appropriate repair yard available.”.
25	27. The following new sections are hereby inserted immediately after section 321 of the principal enactment, and shall have effect as sections 321A, 321B and 321C of that enactment:—	Insertion of new sections 321A, 321B and 321C in the principal enactment.
30	“Implementing standards.	321A. (1) The Director General of Merchant Shipping may, with the concurrence of the Minister issue such implementing standards for the compliance with the minimum technical standards of the provisions of any Convention or Protocol provided in this Act, as may be required for the implementation of the Provisions of this Act or regulations made thereunder.

5 (2) It shall be the duty of all persons in respect of whom any implementation standards are issued under subsection (1) to comply with the same.

10 Imposition of a penalty. 321B. (1) Where the Director- General of Merchant Shipping has sufficient evidence to believe that any person has acted in contravention of the provisions of this Act or any regulation, rule, order or direction made thereunder, he may—

- 15 (a) on the recommendation of the panel appointed under section 321D of this Act; and
- (b) in the case of a first offender, having regard to the circumstances in which the offence was committed,

20 if it is appropriate to impose a penalty, cause a notice to be served in a form prescribed by regulation on such person, requiring him to appear within a period of one month of the date of the receipt of such notice and show cause

25 why a penalty should not be imposed on him.

(2) Where the person on whom the notice is served admits that he acted in contravention of the provisions of this Act or any regulation, rule, order or direction made thereunder within

30 a period of one month of the date of receipt of such notice, the Director-General of Merchant Shipping shall impose on that person a monetary penalty not exceeding one third of the maximum fine that could be imposed under 35 this Act to which such person would be liable, if convicted by a court.

5 (3) (a) Where the person on whom the notice is served, appears within a period of one month of the date of receipt of such notice and states that he has a cause to show against the imposition of the penalty, the Director-General of Merchant Shipping may proceed forthwith to hear and decide the matter.

10 (b) Where the Director-General of Merchant Shipping is not satisfied with reasons given, he may after assigning reasons therefor, impose the penalty specified in subsection (2) of this section.

15 (4) Where the Director-General of Merchant Shipping imposes a monetary penalty on any person under this section for any contravention of the provisions of this Act or any regulation made thereunder, he shall cause the decision in a form prescribed by regulation to be served on such person.

20 (5) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Director-General of Merchant Shipping, may appeal to the Secretary of the Ministry of the Minister to whom implementation of the provisions of this Act is assigned, (hereinafter referred to as the "Secretary") within a period
25 of thirty days from the date of receipt of such decision made under subsection (3).

30 (6) The Secretary shall make a decision on any such appeal taking into consideration the decision of the Director-General of Merchant Shipping and the circumstances in which the offence was committed, and may either—

35 (a) allow, alter or vary the decision of the Director-General of Merchant Shipping and direct the Director-General of Merchant Shipping to act accordingly; or
