PART V

DECLARED ONLINE LOCATIONS

32. (1) The Commission may declare an online location as a “declared online location”, if- Declared online
locations

- 5       (a) three or more different prohibited statements have been or are being communicated to the end users in Sri Lanka on such online location which have been held to be a prohibited statement by the Magistrate’s Court; and
- 10       (b) at least three of such statements had first been communicated to the end users in Sri Lanka on such online location within six months prior to the date of a declaration under this section is made.

15       (2) For the purposes of paragraph (a) of subsection (1), a statement is different from another if it is different in a material particular from that other statement.

(3) A declaration made under this section shall contain-

- (a) the URL, domain name, or any other unique identifier of the online location;
- 20       (b) the relevant orders made by the Magistrate’s Court;
- (c) the date on which the declaration comes into effect;
- (d) the date on which the declaration expires or a formula by which that date may be worked out, which must not be later than two years after the
- 25       date referred to in paragraph (c);

- (e) a notice for the owner or operator of the online location whether in or outside Sri Lanka to communicate in such manner as may be specified in the declaration, to any end user in Sri Lanka who accesses the online location, a notice in such form as may be specified in such declaration, that the online location is the subject of a declaration; and
- (f) such other particulars as may be prescribed.
- (4) A declaration made under this section may expire-
- (a) on the date specified therein, or worked out in accordance with paragraph (d) of subsection (3); or
- (b) on the date it is cancelled or set aside by the Commission,
- whichever is earlier.
- (5) As soon as possible after a declaration is made and before the date it comes into effect, the Commission shall-
- (a) publish, in such form and manner as may be prescribed, a notice in the Gazette -
- (i) stating that a declaration has been issued under this section; and
- (ii) setting out the URL, domain name, or any other unique identifier of the online location, to which the declaration relates; and
- (b) make reasonable efforts to serve a copy of the declaration to the owner or operator of the declared online location.

(6) (a) The declaration shall be deemed to be served, if the declaration is served by personal service, sent by post to the last known address of such owner or operator of the online location, or served by electronic means to such person, or by such other appropriate method adopted by the Commission, depending on the nature of the case.

(b) The declaration shall be deemed to be served by electronic means where such declaration is sent to the email address or social media account of the owner or operator of the online location through which such prohibited statement has been communicated.

(7) Where any owner or operator of a declared online location fails to comply with the notice to communicate a notice as referred to in paragraph (e) of subsection (3), the Commission or any person authorised by the Commission may apply to the Magistrate for an order directing owner or operator to-

(a) disable access by the end users in Sri Lanka to such declared online location;

(b) to communicate to all end users in Sri Lanka who access such declared online location, a notice declaring that the online location is the subject of a declaration; and

(c) any other order as the Magistrate deems fit.

(8) Upon considering such application, the Magistrate may make a conditional order on the owner or operator of a declared online location containing the directions applied by the Commission under subsection (7).

(9) The order made under subsection (8) may contain,
inter alia-

- 5           (a) the name of the owner or operator of a declared online location who is required to disable access by the end users in Sri Lanka to the declared online
            location;
- (b) the manner of communicating the notice referred to in paragraph (e) of subsection (3); and
- 10           (c) the period within which such notice shall be published after the service of the order.

(10) The order made under subsection (8) shall be deemed to be served on the owner or operator of a declared online location against whom the order is made, if the order is served by personal service, sent by registered post to the last known 15 address of such person, or served by electronic means to such person, or by any other method deemed proper by the Magistrate depending on the nature of the case and in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(11) The owner or operator of a declared online location
20 against whom a conditional order is made under subsection
(8) shall either comply with such order or appear before the Magistrate as specified in subsection (12) to show cause as to why the order shall not be made absolute.

(12) Where the owner or operator of a declared online 25 location against whom a conditional order is made under subsection (8) intends to show cause, such person shall appear before the Magistrate making that order within a period of one week of making such order and move to have the order set aside or modified in the manner hereinafter provided:

Provided however, any owner or operator of a declared online location against whom a conditional order is made under subsection (8) shall be bound to comply with the order with effect from the date of making such order until such order is set aside or modified by the Magistrate in terms of the provisions of this section.

(13) If the owner or operator of a declared online location against whom an order is made under subsection (8) neither complies with the order nor appears before the Magistrate under subsection (12) such person shall be liable to the penalty specified in subsection (15) and the order shall be made absolute.

(14) (a) Where such owner or operator of a declared online location appears before the Magistrate in terms of subsection (12) to show cause by way of petition and affidavit, the Magistrate shall hold an inquiry which shall be concluded within two weeks of the date of commencement of the inquiry.

(b) The Magistrate may, having regard to the facts stated by the owner or operator of a declared online location against whom the conditional order is made under subsection (8), either move to have the order set aside or modified, if the Magistrate is satisfied that the order under this section is not reasonable and proper, and make an appropriate order, subject to the provisions of this Act.

(c) If the Magistrate is not so satisfied, the order made under subsection (8) shall be made absolute.

(d) Where the order under subsection (8) is modified under paragraph (b), such order shall be made absolute.

(15) (a) Where the owner or operator of a declared online location against whom the order is made under this section fails to comply with such order within the period and in the manner ordered by the Magistrate's Court, such owner or 5 operator of a declared online location commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six years or to a fine not exceeding ten million rupees and Magistrate's Court may make an order directing the Commission to take steps to disable access by the end
10 users in Sri Lanka to the declared online location.

(b) Where the offence under paragraph (a) is a continuing offence, such owner or operator of a declared online location shall be liable to an additional fine of five hundred thousand rupees for each day during which such offence is continued.

15 (16) The Commission may at any time suspend, vary or cancel a declaration made under this section for such period as the Commission may determine-

(a) on its own initiative; or

(b) on an application by-

20 (i) the owner or operator of the declared online location; or

(ii) any person with editorial control over the online location.

(17) For the purpose of subsection (16), a person has 25 "editorial control over an online location" if the person is able to decide-

(a) whether any statement may be included or excluded on the online location; or

(b) where to place any statement on the online location.

(18) Upon a declaration being suspended, varied or cancelled under subsection (16), the Commission shall-

- 5 (a) publish, in such form and manner as may be prescribed, a notice of the suspension, variation or cancellation in the Gazette; and
- (b) make reasonable efforts to give a copy of such notice to the owner or operator of the declared online location.

10 33. (1) A service provider must take reasonable steps (both in and outside Sri Lanka) to ensure that, after a prescribed period commencing on the date a declaration made under section 32 comes into effect, any paid content that it includes or causes to be included on a declared online location, is not communicated in Sri Lanka on the declared online location.

Certain persons not to communicate in Sri Lanka, paid content on declared online locations, &c.

15 (2) A digital advertising intermediary must take reasonable steps (both in and outside Sri Lanka) to ensure that, after a prescribed period commencing on the date a declaration made under section 32 comes into effect, any paid content that it includes or causes to be included on a 20 declared online location is not communicated in Sri Lanka on the declared online location.

(3) A digital advertising intermediary or an internet intermediary must take reasonable steps (both in and outside Sri Lanka) to ensure that, after a prescribed period
25 commencing on the date on the declaration made under section 32 comes into effect, it does not, when acting as a digital advertising intermediary or an internet intermediary, facilitate the communication in Sri Lanka of any paid content that gives publicity to, or otherwise promotes, a declared 30 online location.

(4) A service provider or digital advertising intermediary shall be treated for the purposes of subsection (1) or (2), as the case may be, as having taken reasonable steps to ensure that any paid content that it includes or causes to be included
 5 on a declared online location is not communicated in Sri Lanka on the declared online location, if it has taken such steps as may be prescribed by regulations.

(5) A digital advertising intermediary or an internet intermediary is treated for the purposes of subsection (3), as 10 having taken reasonable steps to ensure that it does not facilitate the communication in Sri Lanka of any paid content mentioned in that subsection if it has taken such steps as may be prescribed by regulations.

(6) A person who fails to comply with the provisions of 15 subsection (1), (2) or (3) commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years or to a fine not exceeding ten million rupees and in the event of a second or subsequent conviction, such term of imprisonment or fine or both such imprisonment 20 and fine may be doubled.

34. (1) Any person, whether in or outside Sri Lanka, who solicits, receives or agrees to receive any financial or other material benefit as an inducement or reward for operating a declared online location commits an offence and shall on 25 conviction be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to a fine not exceeding five million rupees and in the event of a second or subsequent conviction, such term of imprisonment or fine or both such imprisonment and fine may be doubled.

Prohibition
 on deriving benefits from operating a declared
 online
 location

30 (2) Where a court convicts any person of an offence under this section, the court shall order, in addition to imposing on that person the punishment in subsection (1), the forfeiture of any assets acquired through the commission of an offence under this section.

35. (1) A person, whether in or outside Sri Lanka, who expends or applies any property knowing or having reason to believe that the expenditure or application supports, helps or promotes the communication of prohibited statements to 5 the end users in Sri Lanka on a declared online location commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to a fine not exceeding five million rupees and in the event of a second or subsequent conviction, such term of imprisonment or fine 10 or both such imprisonment and fine may be doubled.

Prohibition on providing financial support to declared
 online
 locations

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall not apply to a service provider or a digital advertising intermediary which gives any consideration for the purpose of communicating any paid content in Sri Lanka on the declared online 15 location.

(3) Where a court convicts any person of an offence under this section, the court shall order, in addition to imposing on that person the punishment in subsection (1), the forfeiture of any property acquired through expending or 20 applying any property by the commission of an offence under this section.

(4) For the purpose of this section, “property” means behaviour

(3) The notice shall be deemed to be served on the internet intermediary, if it is served by personal service, sent by post to the last known address of such internet intermediary, or served by electronic means to such person, or by any other 5 method deemed proper by the Commission depending on the nature of the case.

(4) Where a notice issued under subsection (1) has not been complied with, the Commission shall submit an application to the Magistrate's Court. Upon considering such 10 application the Magistrate may issue a conditional order on the internet intermediary containing the directions applied for by the Commission under subsection (1).

(5) An Order made under subsection (4) shall specify that it has effect-

15 (a) indefinitely; or

(b) for a specified period not exceeding three months.

(6) The order made under subsection (4) shall be deemed to be served on the internet intermediary against whom the order is made, if the order is served by personal service, sent 20 by registered post to the last known address of such person, or served by electronic means to such person, or by any other method deemed proper by the Magistrate depending on the nature of the case and in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

25 (7) The internet intermediary against whom a conditional order is made under subsection (4) shall either comply with such order or appear before the Magistrate as specified in subsection (8) to show cause as to why the order shall not be made absolute.

(8) Where the internet intermediary against whom a conditional order is made under subsection (4) intends to show cause, it shall appear before the Magistrate making that order, within a period of one week of making such order
5 and move to have the order set aside or modified in the manner hereinafter provided:

Provided however, any internet intermediary against whom a conditional order is made under subsection (4) shall be bound to comply with the order with effect from the date 10 of making such order until such order is set aside or modified by the Magistrate in terms of the provisions of this section.

(9) If the internet intermediary against whom an order is made under subsection (4) neither complies with the order nor appears before the Magistrate under subsection (8) he 15 shall be liable to the penalty specified in subsection (11) and the order shall be made absolute.

(10) (a) Where such internet intermediary appears before the Magistrate in terms of subsection (8) to show cause by way of petition and affidavit, the Magistrate shall hold an 20 inquiry which shall be concluded within two weeks of the date of commencement of the inquiry.

(b) The Magistrate may having regard to the facts stated by the internet intermediary against whom the conditional order is made under subsection (4), either move to have the 25 order set aside or modified, if the Magistrate is satisfied that the order under this section is not reasonable and proper, make an appropriate order subject to the provisions of this Act.

(c) If the Magistrate is not so satisfied, the order made 30 under subsection (4) shall be made absolute.

(d) Where the order under subsection (4) is modified under paragraph (b), such order shall be made absolute.

(11) (a) Where the internet intermediary against whom the order is made under this section fails to comply with such order within the period and in the manner ordered by the Magistrate, such person commits an offence and shall on 5 conviction be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years or to a fine not exceeding ten million rupees, and the Magistrate may make an order directing the Commission to take steps to enforce such order by preventing 10 access to the prohibited statement within Sri Lanka, notwithstanding anything contrary in any other law.

(b) Where the offence under paragraph (a) is a continuing offence, such internet intermediary shall be liable to an additional fine of five hundred thousand rupees for each day during which such offence is continued.
