STATEMENT OF LEGAL EFFECT

Clause 2 : This clause inserts new section 2A to the Partition Law, No. 21 of 1977 (hereinafter referred to as the “principal enactment”). The new section enables the praveni nilakaraya or any person who derives title from a praveni nilakaraya in a praveni pangu of a temple land to institute a partition action for the partition or sale of such praveni pangu in accordance with the provisions of the principal enactment.

Clause 3 : This clause amends section 15 of the principal enactment by making provisions for the public announcement on the partition action by way of exhibiting a banner and using a loudspeaker to enable all persons having interest in the land to be partitioned, to become aware of such partition action.

Clause 4 : This clause amends section 16 of the principal enactment which enables the court to issue further commissions to any surveyor referred to in section 73 either on its own motion or at the instance of any party to the action for the adjudication of the action.

Clause 5 : This clause amends section 17 of the principal enactment and is consequential to the amendment made to section 15 of the principal enactment by clause 3.

Clause 6 : This clause amends section 23 of the principal enactment by providing for a time period to file a list of documents to a party who intervenes after the first date fixed for trial.

Clause 7 : This clause amends section 27 of the principal enactment enabling the court to issue the commission for the division of the land in to lots to the surveyor who made preliminary survey or any surveyor whose name is in the list referred to in section 73 or any other surveyor upon agreement of all parties who have been awarded any right by the interlocutory decree entered under section 26 of the principal enactment.

Clause 8 : This clause amends section 30 of the principal enactment and is consequential to the amendment made to section 15 of the principal enactment by clause 3.

Clause 9 : This clause replaces section 36A of the principal enactment by providing a person dissatisfied with an order made under section 36 to prefer an application for leave to appeal to the Court of Appeal against such order.

Clause 10 : This clause amends section 45A of the principal enactment by rectifying an error occurred in that section in making a wrong reference inadvertently to sections 36A and 45A.

Clause 11 : This clause amends section 48 of the principal enactment and is consequential to the amendment made to the principal enactment by clause 2.

Clause 12 : This clause amends section 57 of the principal enactment and is consequential to the amendment made to section 15 of the principal enactment by clause 3.

Clause 13 : This clause amends section 83 of the principal enactment by the insertion of definitions for the terms “praveni nilakaraya”, “praveni pangu”, “temple” and “trustee” and is consequential to the amendment made to the principal enactment by clause 2.

Clause 14 : This clause amends the form which bears the title “REPORT BY GRAMA NILADHARI” in the Second Schedule to the principal enactment and is consequential to the amendment made to section 15 of the principal enactment by clause 3.

Partition (Amendment)

AN ACT TO AMEND THE PARTITION LAW, NO. 21 OF 1977

BE it enacted by the Parliament of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Partition (Amendment) Act, No. of 2023. Short title

5 2. The Partition Law, No. 21 of 1977 (hereinafter referred to as the “principal enactment”) is hereby amended by the insertion immediately after section 2 thereof, of the following new section which shall have effect as section 2A thereof:- Insertion of section 2A in Law, No. 21 of 1977

10 “Institution of partition action by a praveni nilakaraya 2A. (1) Every praveni nilakaraya or any person who derives title from a praveni nilakaraya in a praveni pangu of a temple land shall be entitled to institute a partition action for the partition or sale of such praveni pangu in accordance with the provisions of this Law.

15 (2) Where there are more than one praveni nilakarayas or persons having an interest in a praveni pangu, such praveni nilakarayas or such persons may be made parties to any action instituted under subsection (1).

20 (3) (a) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby stated that the partition or sale of a praveni pangu shall not affect any rights of a temple enforceable under the provisions of the Service Tenures Ordinance (Chapter 467) and the temple shall be entitled to exercise rights under such Ordinance through its trustee or Viharadhipathi as the case may be, as though no partition or sale had occurred in respect of the entirety of the praveni pangu or any portion thereof as the case may be.

5 (b) Any right of a temple enforceable under the Service Tenures Ordinance (Chapter 467) shall remain unaffected irrespective of the fact that a trustee or a Viharadhipathi of such temple has been or has not been made a party to a partition action instituted under the provisions of this section.

10 (4) (a) A trustee appointed with reference to a temple referred to in subsection (1) under the provisions of the Buddhist Temporalities Ordinance (Chapter 318) or a Viharadhipathi of a temple which is exempted under the provisions of section 4(1) of the Buddhist Temporalities Ordinance (Chapter 318), as the case may be, may make an application to be a party to the partition action instituted under subsection (1).

20 (b) Where such trustee or Viharadhipathi, as the case may be, makes an application under paragraph (a) of this subsection, the court shall make such trustee or Viharadhipathi a party to such action.”.

3. Section 15 of the principal enactment is hereby amended as follows:-
