STATEMENT OF LEGAL EFFECT

Clause 2 : This clause amends section 15 of the Partition Law, No. 21 of 1977 (hereinafter referred to as the “principal enactment”) by making provisions for the public announcement on the partition action by way of exhibiting a banner and using a loudspeaker to enable all persons having interest in the land to be partitioned, to become aware of such partition action.

Clause 3 : This clause amends section 16 of the principal enactment which enables the court to issue further commissions to any surveyor referred to in section 73 either on its own motion or at the instance of any party to the action for the adjudication of the action.

Clause 4 : This clause amends section 17 of the principal enactment and is consequential to the amendment made to section 15 of the principal enactment by clause 2.

Clause 5 : This clause amends section 18 of the principal enactment by requiring the surveyor to state in the affidavit the nature of the claim made by the parties to the action who were present at the survey.

Clause 6 : This clause amends section 23 of the principal enactment by providing for a time period to file a list of documents to a party who intervenes after the first date fixed for trial.

Clause 7 : This clause amends section 27 of the principal enactment by enabling the court to issue the commission for the division of the land in to lots to the surveyor who made preliminary survey or any surveyor whose name is in the list referred to in section 73 or any other surveyor upon agreement of all parties who have been awarded any right by the interlocutory decree entered under section 26 of the principal enactment.

Clause 8 : This clause amends section 30 of the principal enactment and is consequential to the amendment made to section 15 of the principal enactment by clause 2.

Clause 9 : This clause replaces section 36A of the principal enactment by providing a person dissatisfied with an order made under section 36 to prefer an application for leave to appeal to the Court of Appeal against such order.

Clause 10 : This clause amends section 45A of the principal enactment by rectifying an error occurred in that section in making a wrong reference inadvertently to sections 36A and 45A.

Clause 11 : This clause amends section 48 of the principal enactment in line with Article 169 of the Constitution.

Clause 12 : This clause amends section 52 of the principal enactment by providing for a time period to file a motion to obtain an order for the delivery of possession of the land.

Clause 13 : This clause amends section 57 of the principal enactment and is consequential to the amendment made to section 15 of the principal enactment by clause 2.

Clause 14 : This clause amends section 67 of the principal enactment in line with Article 169 of the Constitution and makes provisions to prevent the alteration to the character of the land being done during the pendency of the determination of the appeal.

Clause 15 : This clause amends the forms which bear the title "REPORT BY GRAMA NILADHARI" and " FORM OF SURVEYOR'S REPOR" in the Second Schedule to the principal enactment and is consequential to the amendment made to section 15 and section 18 of the principal enactment by clause 2 and clause 5.
