20 “Penalties in respect of dishonour of certain cheques. 82A. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), where any cheque drawn by a customer on an account maintained by him with a bank for payment of any amount of money to another person from that account for the discharge, in whole or in part, of any debt or other liability is returned by the bank unpaid owing to –

25 (a) the amount of money standing to the credit of that account being insufficient to honour the cheque;

30 (b) the amount of the cheque exceeding the amount arranged to be paid from that account by an agreement made with the bank;

8 Bills of Exchange (Amendment)

(c) the drawer having issued a cheque from a closed account; or

5 (d) the drawer having countermanded a cheque issued by him without any legitimate reason in terms of subsection (3),

10 such person shall be deemed to have committed an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine equivalent to the amount of the cheque, or to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding two years, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall apply only if –

15 (a) the cheque has been presented to the drawee bank within a period of six months from the date on which it is drawn or within the period of its validity, whichever is earlier;

20 (b) the payee or holder in due course of the cheque makes a demand for payment of the value of the returned cheque, in writing to the drawer of the cheque within ninety days of the receipt of information by him from 25 the collecting bank or drawee bank, regarding the return of the cheque as unpaid; and

5 (c) the drawer of the cheque fails to make the payment in response to such demand to the payee or holder in due course of the cheque, within ninety days of the date of the demand.

10 (3) Where a drawee bank has dishonoured a cheque by writing the words “refer to drawer”, “account closed” or “payment countermanded by drawer” on the cheque or such words are stated in a cheque return notification issued by a collecting bank, it shall be presumed that the cheque was dishonoured due to insufficiency of funds in the account of the drawer.

15 Institution of legal action. 82B. The payee or holder in due course of a cheque which has been returned unpaid due to insufficiency of funds in the account of the drawer may institute legal action as the claimant within thirty days of the expiration of the period specified in paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of section 82A.

20 Jurisdiction. 82C. The jurisdiction to hear and determine an offence under this Ordinance shall be vested with the Magistrate’s Court within whose local jurisdiction -

25 (a) where the cheque is deposited for collection through the account of the payee or holder in due course of the cheque, the branch of the bank in which such payee or holder in due course maintains the account, is 30 situated; or

10 Bills of Exchange (Amendment)

5 (b) where the cheque is presented for payment by the payee or holder in due course of the cheque to the branch of the drawee bank, the branch of the drawee bank in which the drawer maintains the account, is situated.

10 Conclusive evidence of a dishonoured cheque. 82D. The following shall be treated as conclusive evidence of a cheque dishonoured due to the insufficiency of funds in the account of the drawer: -

- 15 (a) the cheque return notification issued by the collecting bank;
- (b) the deposit slip acknowledged by the collecting bank; or
- (c) the cheque returned by the drawee bank.

20 Presumption in favour of the payee or holder in due course of the cheque. 82E. It shall be presumed unless the contrary is proved, that the payee or holder in due course of the cheque received the cheque for the discharge, in whole or in part, of any debt or other liability of the drawer.

Offences by a body of persons. 82F. Where a body of persons is convicted for an offence under this Ordinance, then –

- 25 (a) if that body of persons is a body corporate, every director, manager, or secretary of that body corporate at the time of the commission of such offence;

(b) if that body of persons is a firm, every partner of that firm at the time of the commission of such offence; and

5 (c) if that body of persons is an unincorporated body, every individual who is a member of such unincorporated body at the time of the commission of such offence, shall be deemed to have committed that offence:

10 Provided however, any director, manager or secretary of such body corporate or any partner of such firm or any individual of such unincorporated body shall not be deemed to have committed such offence if he proves to 15 the satisfaction of the court that such offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.”.

20 17. Section 83 of the principal enactment is hereby amended by the repeal of all the words from “For the purpose of this section” to the end of that section.

Amendment of section 83 of the principal enactment
