5 (f) a full statement describing the nature and the extent of the beneficial ownership.

10 (2) Every shareholder shall, within ten working days of the purchase of any shares or transfer of shares give the details specified in subsection (1) relating to beneficial ownership of the company to the company.

15 (3) Every director or secretary of the company shall disclose the details referred to in subsection (1) relating to beneficial owners of the company to the Registrar when he becomes aware of such details.

20 (4) (a) The company shall maintain a register and record the details specified in subsection (1) when it becomes aware and the company shall keep such register of beneficial owners of the company subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) of subsection (3) of section 116 at its registered office.

25 (b) The provisions of section 124 relating to the place of the share register of a company shall mutatis mutandis apply to the register of beneficial owners of the company.

30 (5) (a) A company shall keep and maintain records of the details of the beneficial owners of the company and the nature and extent of the beneficial ownership of the company for a period of at least ten years after the date on which the record was made.

5 (b) The administrator or liquidator of a company under dissolution and any other person involved in the dissolution of a company shall keep and maintain records of the details of the beneficial owners of the company and the nature and extent of the beneficial ownership of the company for a period of at least five years after the date on which the company is dissolved or otherwise ceases to exist.

(6) The Registrar shall maintain a register to record the details specified in subsection (1).

15

(7) The company shall, within fourteen working days upon the receipt of details that a person holds, acquires, or effects a subsequent change of beneficial ownership of a company, notify the Registrar of such details specified in subsection (1).

20

(8) Every company shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (7) deliver the details of beneficial owners of the company in a form as may be prescribed together with the annual return under section 131.

25

(9) The provisions of section 181 relating to the power to require information as to persons interested in shares or debentures shall mutatis mutandis apply to beneficial owners of the company.

30

(10) The provisions of sections 130A to 130I shall not apply to an offshore company

5 incorporated outside Sri Lanka and registered under this Act or, an overseas company registered under this Act where such company is required to comply with the beneficial ownership registration in the country where it has been incorporated.

10 (11) In this section, the expression “former written law relating to companies” means any written law repealed by the Companies Ordinance (Chapter 145) or the Companies Act, No. 17 of 1982 or this Act.

15 Details to be furnished. 130B. A company or the Registrar shall, upon request made by the Attorney-General, Financial Intelligence Unit established under the Financial Transactions Reporting Act, No. 6 of 2006, Director-General of Customs, Commissioner-General of Inland Revenue, any public authority having the responsibility for investigating or prosecuting money laundering, terrorist financing or any other criminal offences, public procurement authorities, or regulatory authorities make available the details of the beneficial owners of the company held or submitted under section 20 25 130A.

30 Appointment of a person for safe keeping and making available details. 130C. (1) A company shall appoint a natural person residing in Sri Lanka as the authorized person who is –
(a) responsible for the safe keeping of the register of the beneficial owners of the company; and

(b) authorised by the company to make the details of the beneficial owners of the company recorded in terms of section 130A available to the Financial Intelligence Unit established under the Financial Transactions Reporting Act, No. 6 of 2006 or any competent authority.

(2) The company shall disclose the details of the authorised person at the time of incorporation and any subsequent changes to such authorised person in a form as may be prescribed.

130D. The details of the beneficial owners of a company shall, upon a request for inspection by a member of the public, be made available by the Registrar whether electronically or physically, but the details of the beneficial owners of the company shall be limited to their full names and the nature and extent of beneficial ownership of the company.

130E. If the Registrar has reasonable grounds to believe that a company-

(a) has failed or fails to keep and maintain a register of beneficial owners of the company referred to in section 130A; or

(b) has failed or fails to comply with any time period referred to in section 130A,

5 the Registrar shall, in writing issue a directive to the company instructing the company to comply with the provisions of section 130A within a period of seven working days from the date of receiving the directive.

A claim for beneficial ownership.
10 130F. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law, a claim to beneficial ownership of a company may not be claimed or be recognized for any lawful purpose, unless such beneficial ownership is disclosed and registered in the manner set out under this division.

Offences.
15 130G. (1) A company which –

(a) contravenes or fails to comply with subsection (1), (3), (4), (7) or (8) of section 130A;

20 (b) knowingly provides false or misleading details about a beneficial owner of the company or the nature and extent of the beneficial ownership of the company;

25 (c) knowingly withholds details of a beneficial owner of the company that should be entered into the register referred to in subsection (1) of section 130A; or shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one million rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding ten years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(2) Where an offence under this section is committed, then every person who at the time of the commission of the offence was a director or an officer of such company shall be deemed to have committed that offence unless such person proves that the offence was committed without such person's knowledge, or that such person exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

10

(3) A shareholder, secretary, or authorised person who contravenes or fails to comply with the provisions under subsection (2) of section 130A or subsection (3) of section 130A or 130C respectively shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one million rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding ten years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

15

Regulations.

25

130H. The Minister may make regulations in respect of all or any of the following matters:-

(a) maintenance of the register of beneficial ownership of the company;

(b) reporting of an acquisition of beneficial ownership of the company; and

30

(c) for obtaining details relating to beneficial ownership of the company.

Interpretation. 130i. In this division-

5 “beneficial owner” means a natural person who ultimately owns or controls ten per cent or more of a company, in whole or in part, through, direct or indirect
10 ownership or control of shares or voting rights or other ownership interest in that company, and also includes a natural person who exercises effective control through other means, and beneficial ownership is to be construed accordingly;

20 “effective control” includes a situation where control is exercised indirectly either through a chain of ownership or by appointment or removal of a director or by any other means of indirect control, such as the ability to take strategic 25 decision that affects the operation of the company, its business practices or general direction of the company.”.
