- (b) always keep exhibited in a conspicuous part of his shop or place of business so as to be clearly visible to and legible by every person resorting thereto a notice containing in Sinhala, Tamil and English the particulars set out in the Third Schedule.

Language to be used in entering Particulars.	16. Where any particulars are required by this Ordinance to be entered in any book, form or document, such particulars shall be entered in Sinhala or Tamil or English.
Books to be kept by pawnbrokers.	17. Every pawnbroker shall keep and use in his business a pledge book in the form A and a sale book of pledges in the form B set out in the Second Schedule, and shall from time to time, as occasion demands, enter therein in affair and legible manner all the particulars for the recording of which provision is made in such forms, and shall make all inquiries necessary for that purpose.
Pawn tickets.	18. (1) Every pawn ticket shall be executed in foil and counterfoil in the form C set out in the Second Schedule and in accordance with the directions contained in that form. (2) The particulars in the Third Schedule shall be printed legibly in Sinhala, Tamil and English on the back of the foil of every pawn ticket. (3) Where a pledge is pawned for One Thousand Rupees or over, the foil of the pawn ticket relating to that pledge shall bear a stamp according to the value. The expense for providing such stamp shall be borne by the pawnbroker. (4) No article shall be or the deemed to be taken in pawn unless and until - (a) the pawner has signed the counterfoil of the pawn ticket; (b) the pawnbroker has signed the foil of the pawn ticket and has given the foil to the pawner; and (c) the pawner has received and accepted the foil of the pawn ticket from the pawnbroker.
Rate of interest.	19. No pawnbroker shall in respect of a loan on a pledge, charge interest at a rate exceeding the rates specified in the Third Schedule. Provided that where any tax is payable in respect of a loan given on a pledge, nothing in the preceding provisions of this section shall be deemed to prohibit the pawnbrokers from recovering such tax from the pawner. In this Section “pledge” includes a pledge which has been pawned and which has not been redeemed before the appointed date.

PART II

PLEDGES

Pledges redeemable within one year.	20. Every pledge shall be redeemable within a period of twelve months (hereinafter in this statute referred to as the “period of redemption”) from the day of pawning exclusive of that day.
Pledges to continue to be redeemable until sale.	21. Notwithstanding anything in this Statute, every pledge shall continue to be redeemable until is disposed of as in this statute provided, although the period of redemption has expired.
Procedure for redemption of a pledge.	22. (1) The pawner shall be entitled to redeem a pledge if he surrenders to the pawnbroker the foil of the pawn ticket relating to that pledge and signs the foil in the presence of the pawnbroker or his agent or servant. (2) A person other than the pawner shall be entitled to redeem a pledge if such person surrenders to the pawnbroker the foil of the pawn ticket relating to that pledge duly endorsed with the signature of the pawner and if such person signs that foil in the presence of the pawnbroker or his agent or servant. (3) Where by reason of the death or legal disability of the pawner, the holder of the foil of the pawn ticket relating to that pledge (hereinafter in this section referred to as the “holder”) claims to be entitled to redeem that pledge but is unable to surrender to the pawnbroker the foil of the pawn ticket duly endorsed with the signature of the pawner, the pawnbroker shall permit the pledge to be redeemed if such holder surrenders to him the foil of the pawn ticket relating to that pledge together with a declaration in the form E set out in the Second Schedule, duly made before a Justice of the Peace by such holder and by the person identifying him.

- (4) Subject to the provisions of subsections (1), (2) and (3), the pawnbroker shall on payment of the loan, the interest due thereon, and tax, if any, payable in respect of such loan, deliver the pledge to the pawner or holder, as the case may be, who produces the foil of the pawn ticket relating to that pledge;
- Provided, however, that if the pawnbroker has reason to suspect that such holder, has sold or otherwise illegally obtained possession of the pawn ticket, the pawnbroker may forthwith inform an officer of police or Grama Seva Niladhari.
23. If a person entitled and offering to redeem a pledge shows to the satisfaction of a civil court of competent jurisdiction that the pledge has become, or has been rendered, of less value than it was at the time of pawning thereof, by or through the default, neglect or willful misbehavior of the pawnbroker, the court may, if it thinks fit, award a reasonable satisfaction to the owner of the pledge. Compensation for depreciation of pledge.
24. (1) Any person claiming to be the owner of a pledge, but not holding the foil of the pawn ticket, or any person claiming to be entitled to hold the foil of the pawn ticket, but alleging that the foil of such ticket has been lost, stolen, mislaid, destroyed, or fraudulently obtained from him, may deliver to the pawnbroker a declaration in the form E set out in the Second Schedule, duly made before a Justice or the Peace by himself and by the person indentifying him, and shall thereupon have as between himself and the pawnbroker, all the same rights and remedies as if he produced the foil of the pawn ticket.
- Protection of owners and of pawners not having pawn tickets
- Provided that for the purpose of redeeming a pledge he shall sign the counterfoil of the pawn ticket.
- (2) The pawnbroker is hereby indemnified for delivering the pledge or otherwise acting in conformity with the declaration, unless he has actual or constructive notice that the declaration is fraudulent or false in any material particular.
25. (1) Where the foil of a pawn ticket is surrendered to the pawnbroker for the purpose of redeeming a pledge, the pawnbroker shall retain in his possession the foil and counterfoil of that pawn ticket for a period of twelve months reckoned from the date of the redemption of that pledge. Pawn tickets to be retained by pawnbroker after redemption or sale of pledge.
- (2) Where a pledge is redeemed without the surrender of the foil of the pawn ticket relating to that pledge, a pawnbroker shall retain in his possession for a period of twelve months reckoned from the date of the redemption of that pledge the counterfoil of the pawn ticket relating to that pledge and the declaration delivered to him under section 24 for the purpose of such redemption.
- (3) Where a pledge is sold under the provisions of this Ordinance, the pawnbroker shall retain in his possession the counterfoil of the pawn ticket relating to that pledge for a period of twelve months reckoned from the date of sale.
26. (1) Where in any prescribed circumstance any pledge is lost while in pawn with any pawnbroker, the security furnished by such pawnbroker shall be applied in the prescribed manner to the payment of compensation to the pawner or to any other person entitled to redeem such pledge. Application and return of security furnished by pawnbrokers
- (2) Where a person ceases to carry on the business of a pawnbroker, the amount of the security furnished by him less any sum applied therefrom to the payment of such compensation as is referred to in subsection (1) shall be returned to him.
27. (1) Where a pledge is destroyed or damaged by or in consequence of fire, the pawnbroker shall nevertheless be liable, on demand, within the period of redemption, to pay the value of the pledge, after deducting the amount of the loan and interest, and business turnover tax, if any, payable in respect of such loan. Liability of pawnbroker in case of fire.
- (2) Every pawnbroker shall have his business insured to the full extent of the value of the articles pawned with him.
28. Every pawnbroker shall, at the time of redemption of the pledge, give a receipt for the amount of loan and interest paid to him and tax, if any recovered by him and preserve a copy of such receipt with the pledge book, Such receipt shall be in the Form F set out in the Second Schedule. Receipt of pawnbroker
29. (1) Every pledge which is not redeemed within the period of redemption may be disposed of by sale by public auction but shall not be disposed of otherwise, and the regulations in the Fourth Schedule shall be observed with reference to the sale. Pledges to be sold by auction.

- (2) Where a pledge is to be sold by public auction under the preceding provisions of this Section, where a pledge is to be sold by Public Auction under the preceding provisions of this Section, the pawner shall be given two months notice in writing with regard to such sale. The pawnbroker with whom such pledge had been pawned shall give at least twenty one days notice in writing to the Chief Secretary of the date and time fixed for such sale and the place at which such sale is to be held.
- Notice of sale. 30. The pawnbroker shall give to every pawner whose pledge is to be sold under this Statute at least fourteen days notice of the date fixed for the sale of his pledge by public auction and of the place at which the sale is to be held.
- Proceeding at sale of pledge for more than the amount of the loan, interest and any tax. 31. In every case where a pledge is sold under this Statute for more than the amount of the loan and interest due on the date of the sale and any tax, if any, payable in respect of such loan the pawnbroker shall;
- (a) forthwith give to the pawner of that pledge notice of the amount for which the pledge was sold and of the amount lying to the credit of the pawner after deducting the necessary costs and accrued interest charges of the sale and ,
- (b) on demand made within one year from the date of such sale pay to the holder of the pawn ticket relating to that pledge the amount lying to the credit of the pawner; and
- (c) if no such demand is made within the said period of one year, forthwith on the expiry of the said period, deposit the amount lying to the credit of the pawner in the Provincial Council to the credit of the pawner.
- Procedure on sale of pledge before the appointed date for more than the amount due and interest. 32. Where, at any time before the appointed date, any pledge pawned for above Thousand Rupees has been sold under the law then in force for more than the amount of the loan and interest due at the time of the sale, and no demand for the amount lying to the credit of the pawner is made to pawnbroker by the holder of the pawn ticket relating to that pledge within one year after the date appointed date, the pawnbroker shall, forthwith on the expiry of the said period, deposit such amount in the Provincial Council Fund to the credit of the pawner.
- Method of giving notice under sections 29, 30 and 31. 33. Every notice under Section 29, 30 or 31 shall be sent by registered post to the pawner at the address entered in the pledge book and the cost of registration shall be borne by the pawner.
- Purchase of pledges by pawnbroker. 34. A pawnbroker may bid for and purchase at a sale by auction made or purporting to be made under this Statute, a pledge pawned with him; and on such purchase he shall be deemed to be the absolute owner of the pledge purchase.

PART III

INSPECTION, EXAMINATION AND SEIZURE

- Power to inspect sale books. 35. At any time within two years from the date on which a pledge is sold under this Statute, the holder of the pawn ticket may inspect the entry of the sale in the pawnbrokers's book and in the filled-up catalogue of the auction authenticated by the signature of the auctioneer, or in either of them; and the pawnbroker shall permit the holder of the pawn ticket to inspect the entry of the sale in such book and catalogue or in either of them.
- Proceedings where persons offering articles in pawn do not give a good account of themselves. 36. Where any person
- (a) offers to a pawnbroker an article by way of pawn, but refuses or is unable to give a satisfactory account of the means by which he became possessed of it; or
